

Welcome, New Subscriber! Your Morning News is in Good Hands

Good morning! I'm James Bunker, though many know me as Jimmy or James T., and it's my pleasure to introduce myself as your dedicated newspaper distributor. I'll be delivering your morning news from esteemed publications like The Virginian-Pilot, Wall Street Journal, Washington Post, New York Times, and USA Today, among others.

As a proud Virginia Beach native and a Princess Anne High School alumnus (Class of '91), my roots in this community run deep. My journey with newspaper delivery began right here in the 1980s, cycling papers around the Lynnhaven Mall area. After serving our country in the 82nd Airborne Division and 4th Infantry Division, I'm now a proud disabled veteran, and I'm honored to continue serving our community by bringing you the news. You'll spot me on my route in a gray Nissan Rogue, easily identifiable by its amber strobe light.

Your Delivery, My Commitment

My commitment to exemplary service is unwavering. You can always reach out if you have questions about your delivery. A simple text message will get you an immediate response from me, whether it's to update you on a delay, explain its cause, or confirm my imminent arrival. I assure you, every call or message will receive a prompt and personal response.

I follow a precise address list provided by The Virginian-Pilot, which helps ensure accuracy. However, if there's ever a discrepancy or you need an additional paper, please don't hesitate to contact me directly at any time. I keep extra copies on hand to ensure quick fulfillment of such requests.

Important Notes for Your Newspaper Delivery:

- Consistent Placement: I aim for uniformity in paper placement for your convenience.
 - Safe & Dry Delivery: I strategically place papers beside walkways or driveways (on the grass). This not only secures the paper but also protects it from water damage.
 - Varying Volume: Please note that Wednesdays and Sundays typically have a significantly higher volume of papers than other days.
 - Vacation Security: If I notice an accumulation of more than two newspapers at your residence, I will safely gather and stow them away from plain view on your porch. This helps maintain the impression that your home is occupied while you're away.
 - Delivery Timing: The exact timing of your daily delivery can vary based on several factors: the volume of papers for distribution, logistical timing concerning shipment to our distribution center, and especially weather conditions (rain, unfortunately, can sometimes cause delays).

Thank you for entrusting me with this important start to your day. I look forward to providing you with reliable and consistent news delivery.

Sincerely, James Bunker
